New HR Director Anette Tronnier appointed at LINDAL

Hamburg, Germany – September 26th, 2022

Anette Tronnier has been appointed as the new Human Resources Director at worldwide aerosol packaging organisation, the LINDAL Group.

Based at LINDAL's headquarters in Hamburg and reporting directly to the Group's CEO, Francois-Xavier Gilbert, Anette assumes direct responsibility for all HR departments within the organisation and will take a strategic lead on the Group's HR function.

Anette says: “It’s an exciting time to be joining LINDAL. With such strong foundations as a family business and success in the packaging industry, we already have some of the industry’s most skilled employees. I’m looking forward to building on this further by retaining and developing our people across the Group and attracting the talent of the future too.”

Bringing 30+ years of Human Resources experience and 10 years as a HR leader in family-owned businesses, Corporate Groups and Private Equity Funds, Anette has extensive knowledge in setting up, developing and realigning HR departments and navigating transformation processes on an international scale.

Anette has in-depth experience working in a broad range of sectors within the HR function, including Medical Technology, FMCG, Mechanical Engineering, Education and Apparatus Engineering. In her former role as Chief People Officer at wind turbine manufacturer, Senvion GmbH, Anette led the global HR management and internal communications teams. As a member of the Executive Team, she took the lead on change management, organisational design, executive coaching and the direction of complex international projects.

LINDAL CEO, Francois-Xavier Gilbert says: “Anette’s appointment demonstrates our firm commitment to People Management at LINDAL. Her depth of knowledge and track record building and leading global HR organisations will prove valuable in further strengthening our culture and cross-regional collaboration.

“Not only this, but it is a delight for myself and fellow board members to welcome Anette as the first woman on the Executive team at LINDAL.”
